Bill was introduced to beekeeping while in the Boy Scouts. His fascination and love of bees stayed with him though college and a career in the Aerospace Industry. His company, Bill's Bees, was established in 1991 and currently has over 400 colonies. Bill served as President of the California State Beekeepers Association and continues to be active with the Association.

Join us to learn more about the natural world.

Our Mission: To preserve and maintain Bolton Hall Museum and the historical record of Rancho Tujunga.
