

Craig's Colorful Collection of Captivating Clutter

After a lifetime of gathering the eclectic and peculiar, our local History Hunter, Craig Durst, will reveal his unusual collection of oddities for the first time. Starting his assemblage at a very young age, the items you will see and touch will connect you with International, National, State, and Local history. He will show and tell and pass about numerous gifts he received from various celebrities during his 40 years of working in television. Turn the crank on a 1923 Pathe Baby Film Projector and be one of the first to view a short Pathex film shot in Tujunga in 1928. It was recently discovered in the museum archives and will be premiered at this event. Then, a piece of Abraham Lincoln's hair, a piece of the World Trade Center, a piece of the St. Francis Dam, and a piece of the Oak of Peace! This is just a piece of what you shall see and touch at Craig's Colorful Captivating Collection.

And Much More...
